KITCHEN ARCHITECTURE

Putney's Kitchen Architecture celebrates official recognition as best kitchen company in the UK for the second year in a row

Kitchen Architecture was first awarded the UK's kitchen industry's equivalent of the Oscars "The Master Retailer of the Year" in 2010. Constantly striving to surpass expectations, it's testament to the design skills and unrivalled service delivered by this family-run business that they have secured the most coveted and prestigious "Master Retailer of the Year" title again in 2011.

Originally opened in Oxford in 2002, Kitchen Architecture rapidly earned a reputation amongst discerning homeowners as the place to go for an open-plan living space. It opened its London showroom on the Lower Richmond Road in Putney in April 2009.

The Putney showroom's double-glazed frontage invites you into an exciting environment where you will find plenty of options and inspiration. With six stunning bulthaup displays, and boasting one of the strongest bulthaup teams in the world, a visit to this award-winning kitchen company is a must for anyone looking for a stunning kitchen that meets the demands of a busy modern lifestyle brilliantly.

The ground floor is warm and friendly with the herringbone oak floor and pendant lighting adding a period feel. The lower ground floor provides a more architectural, white-box environment. Whether you're renovating your country weekend retreat, a classic London family home, or a cutting-edge City apartment, the underlying message is that bulthaup looks as comfortable in period properties as it does in modern surroundings.

"...ONE OF THE STRONGEST BULTHAUP TEAMS IN THE WORLD..."

Rob Gelling, MD, comments "My wife Jen and I set up Kitchen Architecture with a very clear vision: simply to be the best provider of high-end kitchens in the business. Our driving force is to give unparalleled service, product knowledge and project delivery. It's a great recognition of the dedication of the entire team that we have won the top award in the industry for the second year running"
